Explore and Enjoy The Clark on Tuesday, September 17

Join YUWO’s bus trip to The Clark Institute of Art in the beautiful northwestern corner of Massachusetts. We will tour the special exhibit in recognition of the centenary of Pierre-August Renoir’s death Renoir: The Body, The Senses. We are planning for 50 people. The Museum can accommodate 40 people on 2 guided tours with earphones led by gallery interpreters, and the last 10 people to sign up will be given I pads from the museum which will allow them to take a self-guided tour.

The tours will be followed by a box lunch which includes chips, fruit, a cookie and water along with your choice of sandwich (see registration form) and will be served in rooms adjacent to the exhibit.

The rest of the afternoon is free for you to enjoy all that The Clark, with more than 10,000 objects, offers: American and European paintings dating from 1300-1900, sculpture, and European decorative arts and silver. An additional treat is the exhibit Ida O’Keeffe: Escaping Georgia’s Shadow. Her show displays her modernist paintings and prints that explore realism as well as abstraction and touches on the sisters’ sibling rivalry.

The bus will depart from The Clark at 3:30 PM.
